Courtesy Runner Rule

- A courtesy runner may only be used for the pitcher or the catcher
- So who is the pitcher & catcher?
  - The player who last physically played the position
  - In the top of the 1st - the players listed as the pitcher & catcher

Courtesy Runner Rule

- Must be a player who has not been in the game
- The same player cannot run for both the pitcher & the catcher
  - Locked to the position, not the player
- May be used anytime - even after a pitch to another batter

Courtesy Runner Rule

- *Cannot be replaced by the pitcher or catcher she is running for
- *Cannot enter the game as a substitute during the half inning she ran as a courtesy runner

Courtesy Runner Rule

- *Exception
  - Injury & no subs
  - DQ - & no subs
- The courtesy runner must enter the game
- The pitcher or catcher can come back in and run for themselves

Courtesy Runner Rule

- A courtesy runner cannot be used for the DP or FLEX unless the DP or FLEX IS the pitcher or catcher
- A courtesy runner must run for the batter who hit the ball - not a sub for that batter

Courtesy Runner Rule

- The pitcher & catcher are NOT considered to have left the game if a courtesy runner runs for them
- Use of a courtesy runner must be reported to the umpire
- Penalty for violation of rule
  - Unreported sub - NFHS & ASA

About the Twins - DP/FLEX

- You can't have one without the other
- Special privileges with restrictions
- DP is the dominant Twin - she was born 1st
- DP has more privileges
- FLEX is the weaker sister - she was born last
- FLEX has fewer privileges

About the Twins - DP/FLEX

- If Twins in game - must be in starting lineup
- If not in starting lineup - will never have Twins in the game
- Each Twin lives in her own slot in the lineup

About the Twins - DP/FLEX

- DP is an Offensive Position
- DP must play offense to be in the game
  - Has not left the game until has left offense
- DP can never play just defense

About the Twins - DP/FLEX

- FLEX is an Defensive Position
- FLEX must play defense to be in the game
  - Has not left the game until has left defense
- FLEX can never play just offense

About the Twins - DP/FLEX

- Each Twin can leave her slot in the lineup and return to the same slot once
- This is the Re-entry
  - Same as any starter
  - Same as any sub

Privileges for Both Twins

- Each Twin may play for her sister
- DP can play defense for FLEX
- FLEX can play offense for DP
- But they cannot play for each other at the same time
- If a Twin plays for her sister - she forces her sister to leave the game

Privileges for Twin-DP

- DP can play defense for ANY player in the lineup
  - Not just her sister - FLEX
- That player continues to bat but does not play defense
- She has NOT left the game
- She is like a “position” player or a “placeholder”
  - She holds that position in the lineup

Lesser Privileges for Twin-FLEX

- FLEX can only play offense for her sister - DP
- FLEX CANNOT bat for any other player

Keys to the Twins

- DP CANNOT play just defense
- FLEX CANNOT play just offense
- DP & FLEX CAN play defense at the same time
  - Remember the “position” player
- DP & FLEX CANNOT play offense at the same time

Keys to the Twins

- A substitute for a Twin “becomes” that Twin
  - The subs has all the privileges the Twin had
- When the Twins play for each other there are only 9 in the game
- The game can go from 10 to 9 and 9 to 10, back & forth all game long

Givens for the Twins

- An “X” stands for a Twin
- An “X” can only appear in the DP or tenth slot in the lineup
- An “X” in the DP slot means the FLEX is playing offense for the DP
- An “X” in the FLEX slot means the DP is playing defense for the FLEX
